

PATENT

IN THE UNITED STATES PATENT AND TRADEMARK OFFICE

|                                        |                            |
|----------------------------------------|----------------------------|
| In re application of:                  | )                          |
|                                        | )                          |
| Hursey et al.                          | ) Art Unit: 2135           |
|                                        | )                          |
| Application No. 09/975,991             | ) Examiner: To, Baotran N. |
|                                        | )                          |
| Filed: October 15, 2001                | ) Date: April 30, 2007     |
|                                        | )                          |
| For: MALWARE SCANNING AS LOW PRIORITY) | )                          |
| TASK                                   | )                          |
|                                        | )                          |
| _____                                  | )                          |

AMENDMENT B

Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Examiner:

In response to the Office Action mailed January 29, 2007, please enter the following amendments believed to place the claims in condition for allowance.